Accessibility statement for blockley.org.uk

This website is run by Blockley Parish Council.

We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website. For example, that means you should be able to:

- change colours, contrast levels and fonts by using your browser settings or installing a browser extension
- navigate most of the website using just a keyboard
- navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader (including the most recent versions of JAWS, NVDA and VoiceOver)

We've also made the website text as simple as possible to understand.

AbilityNet has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

How accessible this website is

We know some parts of this website are not fully accessible:

- live video streams do not have captions
- you cannot skip to the main content when using a screen reader
- zoom in up to 300% without the text spilling off the screen

What to do if you cannot access parts of this website

If you need information on this website in a different format like accessible PDF, large print, easy read, audio recording or braille:

- email parishclerk.blockley.org.uk
- call 01386 701602

We'll consider your request and get back to you in 5 days.

Reporting accessibility problems with this website

We're always looking to improve the accessibility of this website. If you find any problems not listed on this page or think we're not meeting accessibility requirements, contact: Parish Clerk at parishclerk@blockley.org.uk, 01386 701602.

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018 (the 'accessibility regulations'). If you're not happy with how we respond to your complaint, contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service \(EASS\).
